MONARCH RECOVERY	:	COMPLAINT
MANAGEMENT, INC.,	:
Defendant.	:

For this Complaint, the Plaintiff, TOCCARRA HINES, by undersigned counsel, states as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This action arises out of Defendant's repeated violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq. ("FDCPA"), and the harassment of Plaintiff by the Defendant and its agents in their illegal efforts to collect a consumer debt.

2. Further, Defendant negligently, knowingly, and/or willfully placed automated calls to Plaintiff's cellular phone in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227, et seq. (the "TCPA") thereby invading Plaintiff's privacy. Plaintiff alleges as follows upon personal knowledge as to Plaintiff and Plaintiff's own acts and experiences, and, as to all other matters, upon information and belief, including investigation conducted by Plaintiff's attorneys.

3. Supplemental jurisdiction exists pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337 and this Court has original jurisdiction over Plaintiff's TCPA and state law claims. Mims v. Arrow Fin. Serv., LLC, 132 S.Ct. 740 (2012).

4. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331(b) & (c), because Plaintiff resides within the District of Nevada, a substantial portion of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this District, and Defendant regularly conducts business in this District.

PARTIES

5. The Plaintiff, TOCCARRA HINES ("Plaintiff" or "HINES"), is an adult individual residing in Las Vegas, Nevada, and is a "consumer" as the term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).

6. Plaintiff is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a "person" as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (39).

7. Defendant MONARCH RECOVERY MANAGEMENT, INC. ("MONARCH"), is doing business in the State of Nevada as a business entity operating as a collection agency, and is a "debt collector" as the term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

8. Defendant is and at all times mentioned herein was, a corporation and is a "person," as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (39).

9. MONARCH at all times acted by and through one or more of its debt collectors or other agents (the “Collectors”).

ALLEGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL COUNTS

The Debt

10. Plaintiff allegedly incurred a consumer financial obligation (the “Debt”) to a creditor (the “Creditor”).

11. The Debt arose from services provided by the Creditor which were primarily for family, personal or household purposes and which meets the definition of a “debt” under 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).

12. The Debt was purchased, assigned or transferred to MONARCH for collection, or MONARCH was employed by the Creditor to collect the Debt.

13. The Defendant attempted to collect the Debt and, as such, engaged in “communications” as defined in 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(2).

14. In fact, within the one year prior to filing the istnat complaint, MONARCH placed numerous annoying collection calls to the Plaintiff to collect the Debt.

15. The Plaintiff did not owe the Debt which MONARCH was seeking to collect and had no account relationship with MONARCH.

16. The collection calls from MONARCH were intrusive and annoying and caused interruptions to Plaintiff’s home and family life.

17. The Plaintiff demanded the calls from MONARCH cease.

18. However, MONARCH persisted in placing collecting calls to the Plaintiff and this lawsuit results.

Plaintiff Suffered Actual Damages

19. The Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer actual damages as a result of MONARCH's unlawful conduct.

20. As a direct consequence of Defendant's acts, practices and conduct, the Plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer from anger, frustration, rage, headaches, an upset stomach, heart palpitations, and has otherwise been totally annoyed by Defendant's intrusive and illegal collection calls. Plaintiff has also lost the use of personal and family time while enduring these frustrations, as well as lost time and minutes from cell phone use, for which the Plaintiff is charged a fee.

Respondeat Superior Liability

21. The acts and omissions of MONARCH, and the other debt collectors employed as agents by MONARCH who communicated with Plaintiff as more further described herein, were committed within the time and space limits of their agency relationship with their principal, Defendant MONARCH.

22. The acts and omissions by MONARCH and these other debt collectors were incidental to, or of the same general nature as, the responsibilities these agents were authorized to perform by MONARCH in collecting consumer debts.

23. By committing these acts and omissions against Plaintiff, MONARCH and these other debt collectors were motivated to benefit their principal, Defendant MONARCH.

24. MONARCH is therefore liable to Plaintiff through the Doctrine of Respondeat Superior for the intentional and negligent acts, errors, and omissions done in violation of state and federal law by its collection employees, including but not limited to violations of the FDCPA and Nevada tort law, in their attempts to collect a debt from Plaintiff.

THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT OF 1991

25. In 1991, Congress enacted the TCPA in response to a growing number of consumer complaints regarding certain telemarketing practices.

26. The TCPA regulates, among other things, the use of automated telephone dialing systems.

27. 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1) defines an automatic telephone dialing system (“ATDS”) as equipment having the capacity –

- (A) to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and
- (B) to dial such numbers.

28. Specifically, 47 U.S.C. § 227(1)(A)(iii) prohibits any call using an ATDS or an artificial or prerecorded voice to a cellular phone without prior express consent by the person being called, unless the call is for emergency purposes.

29. According to findings by the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”), such calls are prohibited because automated or prerecorded telephone calls are a greater nuisance and invasion of privacy than live solicitation calls. The FCC also recognized that wireless customers are charged for incoming calls.¹

30. On January 4, 2008, the FCC released a Declaratory Ruling wherein it confirmed that autodialed and prerecorded calls to a wireless number by a creditor, or on behalf of a creditor, are permitted only if the calls are made with the “prior express consent” of the called party.²

31. On July 10, 2015, the FCC issued FCC Order 15-72, wherein the FCC³ stated that “[a] caller may not limit the manner in which revocation [of prior express consent to call] may occur” and that the “burden is on the caller to prove it obtained the necessary prior express consent”. Id. at ¶ 30.

32. Further, consumers (like the Plaintiff) may revoke consent through any reasonable means. Id. at ¶ 47.

¹ Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, CG Docket No. 02-278, Report and Order, 18 FCC Rcd 14014 (2003).

² In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 23 F.C.C.R. 559, 23 FCC Rcd 559, 43 Communications Reg. (P&F) 877, 2008 WL 65485 (F.C.C.) (2008).

³ See Declaratory Ruling and Order, Adopted June 18, 2015 and Released July 10, 2015 regarding In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, CG Docket No. 02-278, WC Docket No. 07-135 (https://apps.fcc.gov/edocs_public/attachmatch/FCC-15-72A1.pdf).

33. Nothing in the language of the TCPA or its legislative history supports the notion that Congress intended to override a consumer's common law right to revoke consent. Id. at ¶ 58.

34. Indeed, some consumers may find unwanted intrusions by phone more offensive than home mailings because they can cost them money and because, for many, their phone is with them at almost all times. Id. at ¶ 61.

35. Consumers have a right to revoke consent, using any reasonable method including orally or in writing. Id. at ¶ 64.

ALLEGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL COUNTS

36. Within the four years prior to filing the instant complaint, the Plaintiff received numerous calls from the Defendant from the following phone number: (844) 280-6008.

37. Upon information and belief, Defendant employs an automatic telephone dialing system (“ATDS”) which meets the definition set forth in 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1).

38. Defendant or its agent/s contacted Plaintiff on Plaintiff's cellular telephone number ending in “9483” via an ATDS as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1), as prohibited by 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A).

39. On or prior to December 23, 2015, Plaintiff instructed Defendant or its agent(s) not to call the Plaintiff's cell phone ever again thereby revoking consent, if any ever existed, to be contacted by Defendant via an ATDS.

40. Moreover, Defendant did not have prior express consent to place any automated or prerecorded calls to Plaintiff on Plaintiff's cellular telephone at any time.

41. However, Defendant placed calls to the Plaintiff's cellular telephone without consent using an ATDS in violation of the TCPA on at least the following times and dates:

01/06/2016 12:43:57 PM
01/15/2016 01:42:37 PM
01/19/2016 12:00:27 PM
01/27/2016 10:01:20 AM
01/29/2016 12:52:01 PM

42. Defendant's ATDS has the capacity to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator.

43. The telephone number that Defendant used to contact Plaintiff was and is assigned to a cellular telephone service as specified in 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).

44. Defendant's calls to Plaintiff's cellular telephone were not for "emergency purposes."

45. Pursuant to the TCPA and the FCC's January 2008 Declaratory Ruling, the burden is on Defendant to demonstrate that it had prior express consent to call Plaintiff's cellular phone with an ATDS.
